

We Will Rise

Throwdown

Can we rise? We will rise
We will rise above the lies and move on
We are the hated, we are the raging plague
We are the ill-fated, we grow stronger each day
And we rise
We've built a new world
Underneath the one we hate
Outside there is no love
But down here we're one
And we'll rise above
Can we rise? We will rise
We will rise above the lies and move on
We are the hated, we are the youth betrayed
We are the ill-fated, we struggle each day
And we rise
This is a new blood, this is a family
The voice of the unloved
We will rise as one, and we'll rise above
Can we rise? We will rise
We will rise above the lies and move on
