

Sunray Venus

Throwing Muses

Unfrightened
Careless
Unfrightened
Blank

We sit at the young man's feet
Mouths working
And no one remembers to pray

Working in dull light
Another island where no one
Remembers to pray

Open your mouth
You're blessed for the moment
Kisses all round
Sunray venus crushed underfoot and
Kisses all round
Leaving that is limbo
Hell i remember you

Touched

Withered
Crushed in a moment
Brought your body down
Slid your brain around

That's some disease you got there
A lousy friend
Pour your heart out at his feet
Crying
Puking
Still no one remembers your name

Feel your way through sound
Another island where no one remembers your name

Open your mouth and fall through
The cracks
Kisses all round
