

grayout

thrown

Yeah
Come on

Say what you want to say
Just be straight with me
I'm not afraid to be alone again (Never been)
Just get it off your chest
I'll get over it
But I can't take another second of uncertainty

Time's up
I'm moving on Life's fucked
I'm on my own
(Say what you want to say
Say what you want to say)
Say what you want to say
It won't change a thing
What's done is done and I am fucking done (No more games)
Baby, it's too late
We weren't meant to be
So I am asking you to stay away for both our sakes

Time's up
I'm moving on
Life's fucked
I'm on my own
Fuck

I can see clearly again
But why does everything look gray?
Extended pain
