

In Vain

Thulcandra

Below the blackest sun, above the brightest stars
I drown in emptiness, conform to cosmic scars
Beyond the moonless skies, into primordial bliss
Perished in solitude, I am purified in formless abyss

Forevermore, in mourning, all faith will be torn to shreds
Absent beliefs, vanished, gone and unredeemed
A spark of life, embraces eternal night
As we dissolve in constant light
Lost, in vain, I drown in forlorn hope
Enchained, forever, the cursed will rot in hell

Onward damnation, ageless perdition
My spirit sets free, my deeds forgiven

Awaken my divine, embraced to misery
Aroused through hidden flames, I am kissed by victory

Forevermore, in mourning, all faith will be torn to shreds
Absent beliefs, vanished, gone and unredeemed
A spark of life, embraces eternal night
As we dissolve in constant light
Lost, in vain, I drown in forlorn hope
Enchained, forever, the cursed will rot in hell

Below the blackest sun, above the brightest stars
I drown in emptiness, conform to cosmic scars
Beyond the moonless skies, into primordial bliss
Perished in solitude, I am purified in formless abyss
