

Boots

Thundamentals

All the fam keep tellin' me
To respect, better pay my dues
Sayin' who needs enemies
When a man got a mate like you?
I'ma use my energy
To escape, I'ma make my moves
Lace my shoes, snakes try to walk this path
But we ain't got the same size boots
I can see man's jealousy
Still I know that they rate my tunes
Sayin' who needs enemies
When a man got a mate like you?
I'ma use my energy
To escape, I'ma make my moves
Lace my shoes, snakes try to walk this path
But we ain't got the same size boots

Find me creepin' in the streets in a fresh pair
Tryna blow a breeze on the scene like I'm fresh air
They gimme praise to my face, "You're the best here"
But when I jet from the place get a death stare, shit's weird
This year coppin' bare trouble when I step
Man are vexed 'cause I got an air bubble in my crepes
You wouldn't wanna bet 'gainst a motherfuckin vet
I could run up on your set, dog, dun it till it's dead blood
Burn 'em like a piff, ain't a motherfuckin' thing
If you following a trend get to jumping off a cliff
You are not on my lev', you rock a size ten
Put your feet in my kicks, it ain't ever gonna fit
You ain't never gonna win, generic as a bish
Man, I'm wicked with the pen on that limited edish
We fresh out the box, mash up the mosh
While you and your whole clique left pissin' in the wind

All the fam keep tellin' me
To respect, better pay my dues
Sayin' who needs enemies
When a man got a mate like you?
I'ma use my energy
To escape, I'ma make my moves
Lace my shoes, snakes try to walk this path
But we ain't got the same size boots
I can see man's jealousy
Still I know that they rate my tunes
Sayin' who needs enemies
When a man got a mate like you?
I'ma use my energy
To escape, I'ma make my moves
Lace my shoes, snakes try to walk this path
But we ain't got the same size boots

Let me talk about jealousy, let me talk about jealousy
I only ever supported you
You were a friend to me, you were important
Remember you said to me
Never dwell on your enemies
This is when it gets awkward 'cause you were

My mentor essentially, someone I trusted
You fucked it, you're dead to me, end of discussion
Uh, pasty motherfucker named Tuk, pay up
Motherfucker, I'm ill since day one, jack pot
I will run game, sucker, make money
Say something, baby, you can bank on it, jack pot
When I shake on it I'ma put faith in it
Fake frontin' get shamed quicker than crack pot
Haters gonna hate but it won't change nothing
Lame puppets cop the shade from my backdrop

All the fam keep tellin' me
To respect, better pay my dues
Sayin' who needs enemies
When a man got a mate like you?
I'ma use my energy
To escape, I'ma make my moves
Lace my shoes, snakes try to walk this path
But we ain't got the same size boots
I can see man's jealousy
Still I know that they rate my tunes
Sayin' who needs enemies
When a man got a mate like you?
I'ma use my energy
To escape, I'ma make my moves
Lace my shoes, snakes try to walk this path
But we ain't got the same size boots
