

Everyone We Know

Thundamentals

Do you remember when we were younger?
Did you ever think this far ahead?
Here we are, is it too late to start again?
Think about it every now and then
That's why

I stay up
I play music
(I'm all about it, yeah)
I make love
So I saved it all for you babe
(I'm all about it, yeah)

If you really want it come and get some run it
Mic check one two bust it
I been writing side notes, penning everything that I know
Now your cousins getting my quotes scribbled on their stomach
Bugging, I been tripping on it
I ain't gonna lie though that ain't gonna cut it
Everybody I know's living with a struggle
Gotta hustle on the double, learn to juggle if you wanna rise above it
Gun it, I think we started something, something out of nothing
From the mountains to the concrete jungle
Work hard stay hungry like they got me muzzled
Fuck it stay funky check my offbeat shuffle
If I stumble I'm a wing it like a butterfly
Keep it on the humble as I flutter by Every winter whipping up a ripple in the puddle while Others slumber dreaming of another life
I'm a tidal wave into the summertime

Do you remember when we were younger?
Did you ever think this far ahead?
Here we are, is it too late to start again?
Think about it every now and then
That's why

I stay up
I play music
(I'm all about it, yeah)
I make love
So I saved it all for you babe
(I'm all about it, yeah)

Let me take a second to celebrate the victories and the lows
I truly appreciate all the people up at the shows
It's incredible to think that you're listening to me flow
So we can remember for everybody we know
If we never plant a seed then how will we ever grow?
I'm scouring the concrete plucking another rose
Ducking another foe, proposing another toast to you
For when you're blue, just know that you're not alone, it's true
Do you remember thinking back when we were younger?
When the only thing we had up in our belly was a hunger
I would sit and ponder, talking way before the Thunda
Tell me does it sound familiar? Do you ever stop and wonder
Exactly what we might have been?

This for the next gen of whipper snappers hearing the pitter patter of tiny feet

Repeat it after me I can do anything
Now let the power of that concept settle in

Do you remember when we were younger?
Did you ever think this far ahead?
Here we are, is it too late to start again?
Think about it every now and then
That's why

I stay up
I play music
(I'm all about it, yeah)
I make love
So I saved it all for you babe
(I'm all about it, yeah)
