

Late Nights

Thundamentals

Late night, turnt up, say it like you mean it
Put them lighters in the air, get them screamin', carpe diem
Poppin' bottles full of champagne, pain raise it to the ceilin'
I'm higher than a muthafucka, tell me if I'm dreamin'

The future's so bright, the future's so bright
The future's so bright, I wear my
Sunglasses at night everywhere I go
And I think I'm onto somethin'

Late night, turnt up, your feet still gotta bit of hell to pay
Enlighten' up, let it shine on us, like dynamite it might melt your face
Got the gametype, you're in the cut, but it ain't right, let me tell you str aight
Someone's always gonna bribe the judge, but who am I to judge? It won't help you change
So I'm rolling out with my best shoes on, but first I guess I gotta tie my l aces
Everythin' I've been trippin' on I'm a leave behind and write my own [?]
Till the day that my kingdom come let the bridges I burn light my face
Every day can stay as lit as fuck till the bright future gonna shine my way

Late night, turnt up, say it like you mean it
Put them lighters in the air, get them screamin', carpe diem
Poppin' bottles full of champagne, raise it to the ceilin'
I'm higher than a muthafucka, tell me if I'm dreamin'
Late night, turnt up, say it like you mean it
Put them lighters in the air, get them screamin', carpe diem
Poppin' bottles full of champagne, pain raise it to the ceilin'
I'm higher than a muthafucka, tell me if I'm dreamin'

See real G's like, "We never D-I-E, we multiply"
We don't rest in peace, there's no R-I-P, still in V.I.P when I hold the mic
So the little homie wanna be like me, but my best advice is take no advice
Said 'there's only one me, there always will be, so who are they to know wha t it's like'
And I know it's tight and it feels like you move slow at times
Are you popular? Is it popping or are you invisible as a poltergeist?
Do you roll the dice? Do you play the wind? Do you tow the line, or do you t ake the risk?
Can you laugh it off when they take the piss cause that last laughs what you make of it

The future's so bright, the future's so bright
The future's so bright, I wear my
Sunglasses at night everywhere I go
And I think I'm onto somethin'
The future's so bright, the future's so bright
The future's so bright, I wear my
Sunglasses at night everywhere I go
And I think I'm onto somethin'

Late night, turnt up, say it like you mean it
Put them lighters in the air, get them screamin', carpe diem
Poppin' bottles full of champagne, pain raise it to the ceilin'
I'm higher than a muthafucka, tell me if I'm dreamin'
On a late night, turnt up, say it like you mean it

Put them lighters in the air, get them screamin', carpe diem
Poppin' bottles full of champagne, pain raise it to the ceilin'
I'm higher than a muthafucka, tell me if I'm dreamin'

The future's so bright, the future's so bright
The future's so bright, I wear my
