If you don't know me by now then I doubt you'll ever know me
But when I'm dead and buried they'll probably try to clone me
Surrounded by my friends even if I'm feelin' lonely
'Cause I'm down with the rhythm and the beats of my homies

That bring a feast to your ears like a smorgasbord
f*ck door-to-door, we're sellin' records shore-to-shore
'Cause each thought is [?]
We'll get you open like a corner store
You never ask yourself the question of what you bought this for 'Cause it'll all make sense once you plug me in You could catch me on tour with a bubbly grin
Yo, let the fun begin, it's what you came to see The Thundamentals in the house, that's the place to be So if you paid your fee then come and check the abilities
