

We Won't Mind

Thundamentals

So when another day comes
Another day spent
It might take some time before we make sense
I just pay rent
I wouldn't call me savvy though
It's just me on a patio
With a tall pack of tally hos
And it goes a little something like
Thinking about a subtle vibe
On this summer's night
There's something in the air like freedom in my lung
Makes me wonder why there's not a reason why I seeing seeding in the sun str ength
Or mundane, someday
Yo I travelled the seven seas
Never stay in one place
Right now wishing I was leaving my town
Responsibility killin' me dreaming of being tied down
Want to wind down and if she's feelin' frisky
Maybe I can get a little busy with my pretty missy
I'm a gypsy of the city, Sydney where it's at Want to get away, meditate, celebrate and relax

If you want to scream go shout 'til your lungs blow out no we won't mind
And if you want to dance to your body avalanche know you know we won't mind
And if you want to drink crash out on my couch you know we won't mind
And if you want to be 'til you feel set free no no I hope you know we won't mind

I want to be where I'm set free
Out in the middle of the sea on a jet ski
Breathing the fresh breeze
Eski rimming to the top with the ice cold
Bevy such a great idea like a light bulb blowing up
Hooking this fantasy you'll never stop
'cos life's a set of crazy plots
So maybe I'm better off
Getting' lost in this vision of bomb livin'
Quittin' my day job tell my boss that I gone fishing
But this position all that I could only dream about
Cos I gotta make some dollars in order to feed my mouth
And if ever I'm freaking out
Then I reach for my weed in my pouch
And possibly fall asleep on the couch
With the freedom to shout out and beat my chest
Instead I make music when I'm feelin' vexed
And yes that just the way that it's gotta be My personal policy never let the bullshit bother me

If you want to scream go shout 'til your lungs blow out no we won't mind
And if you want to dance to your body avalanche know you know we won't mind
And if you want to drink crash out on my couch you know we won't mind
And if you want to be 'til you feel set free no no I hope you know we won't mind
