

Chasing Shadows

Thunder

Waiting for the magic from the other side
I can't start a fire without a spark inside
I been chasing shadows through a hazy dream
Trying to remember every moment, every scene

So kill me, make me move with a fatal groove
Send me, until I drift away
Hit me, take away the doubt and knock me out
Thrill me 'til the night turns into day

So much to say now if I could only rind the words
And catch that elusive melody I heard
It's floating in the ether waiting to be found
All I need's the key now to unlock the sacred sound

So wake me, I need to feel, gotta make it real Show me you can take the pain away
Shock me, plug me in, turn it up to ten
Touch me with the madness once again

When inspiration comes around
I could kiss the magic ground

I'm the lesson you can't learn
I'm the bridge that you can't burn
I'm the face that you lose in the crowd
I'm the muse, better pray that I return
I'm the tingle down your spine
I make your dumb ideas sublime
I'm the instinct you can't touch at all
Without me you re wasting time

So kill me, make me move with a fatal groove
Send me, until I drift away
Hit me, take away the doubt and knock me out
Thrill me 'til the night turns into day
