

Hero

Thunder

When I'm looking into your eyes
I can see everything I need in my life
'Cause when you smile I feel free
And how can I tell you what you mean to me?

'Cause I know, I'm just a man
But I'd do anything, I'm at your command

I'll be your hero, I'll make it right
And I'm gonna hold you till the darkness subsides
I'll fight the demons till they're all slain
And chase away the pain, oh

Mmh

I'm just an everyday guy
And if stop breathing, the world wouldn't cry
But I know who I am
And you make me wanna be the best that I can

And I thank you with all my heart
But I won't let anything drive us apart

I'll be your hero, I won't give up
I'll never doubt you whenever it's tough
'Cause I belong here right by your side
For this mad, crazy ride

[?] I swear
As I stand here today
I won't let you down
I'll never walk away

And I know that I'm just a man
That I'd do anything, I'm at your command, oh

I'll be your hero, I'll make it right
And I'm gonna hold you till the darkness subsides
I'll fight the demons until they're all slain
And chase away the pain
I'll chase away the pain, oh
