

Rip It Up

Thunder

It's more than a situation
When they rob your spirit blind
Abuse you and take you for granted
Kill your dreams off one at a time
If you're not where you want to be
Your vision's solid gold but no one wants to see

Don't bow to it, plough on through it
Turn the volume up
When you're fenced in by perception
Smash it, rip it up
Rip it up, rip it up

You're revved up at a crossroads
Waiting on a starting gun
But they got no imagination
You could be standing there so long
Don't wait for them to come to you
If they ain't got the sense to feel it like you do

Don't do subtle, burst their bubble
Don't rely on luck
Shine your lights on a new horizon
Smash it, rip it up
It's your own trumpet
Why not blow it?

Don't give in, don't stop
Make a noise and kick the doors in
Smash it, rip it up
Rip it up, rip it up

Come out the shade into the sun
And don't look back until it's done, 'til it's done

If you're not where you want to be
Your vision's solid gold but no one wants to see
Want to see, yeah

Don't bow to it, plough on through it
Turn the volume up
When you're fenced in by perception
Smash it, rip it up
Don't do subtle, burst their bubble
Don't rely on luck
Shine your lights on a new horizon
Smash it, rip it up
Rip it up, rip it up
Rip it up, mmm yeah, rip it up
Rip it up, oh, you got it, rip it up
