

The Damage Is Done

Thunder

Nobody can tell me, just what I did wrong,
But I've been thinking about it,
Ever since you been gone. (ooh)
Every single reason,
I left no stone unturned.
I've been through all that I did and said,
But I've still yet to learn. (ooh)

And there's once question even you can't answer,
Unless you've ever felt this way before.

What am I gonna do now that the damage is done?
How am I gonna live now that the beating has gone?
Its more than I can do to face the people I know
'Cause I'm so torn apart by you.

You know I've been trying, (ooh yeah)
With a little self restraint.
But you know I can't recommend it baby,
'Cause I still feel the pain, (Oh Yeah)

Nobody knows the cure for what I'm feeling,
There's no prescription that can heal my heart,
Tell me.

What am I gonna do now that the damage is done?
How am I gonna live now that the beating is gone?
Its more than I can do to face the people I know,
'Cause I'm so torn apart by you.

Every day I cling to the past,
'Cause our love was my ship,
And I'm still tied to the mast.
Somewhere inside of me,
I can't kill off the dream that you'll return.
Tell me when I'm gonna learn.

What am I gonna do now that the damage is done?
How am I gonna live now that the beating is gone?
Its more than I can do to face the people I know,
'Cause I'm so torn apart by you.
(I'm so torn apart.)

What am I gonna do now that the damage is done?
How am I gonna live now that the beating is gone? (Ooh yeah it's gone)
Its more than I can do to face the people I know,
'Cause I'm so torn apart by you.
(I'm so torn apart. ooh)

What am I gonna do now that the damage is done?
How am I gonna live now that the beating is gone? (Woah the beat has gone)
Its more than I can do to face the people I know,
'Cause I'm so torn apart by you.
(Wooooaahh)
