

Mexico

Thundermother

I hit the wall so fast so slow
When I realized I was thrown
In the hands of el diablo
I had nowhere, nowhere to go
I got a one way ticket down, down to Mexico

I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
I'm running from you
I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
Down in Mexico

My only option was to go all in
So I did to keep my wings
Herradura y patrón
I drink the pain, no perdon
One way ticket, let's go down to Mexico

In a daze trying to erase
Feelings I had lost in this haze
So I turned to Don Julio
My good ol' friend mister Cuervo
One way ticket let's go, down to Mexico

I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
I'm running from you
I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
Down in Mexico

I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
Don't know what I should do
I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
Down in Mexico

Zero of fucks
Bottle of sins
Shot of tequila
I'm going in
Zero of fucks
City of sins
Blood of tequila
Let's see who wins

Yeah

I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
I'm running from you
I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
Down in Mexico

I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
Don't know what I should do
I'm falling, I'm falling, I keep falling
Down in Mexico

I'm falling
