

Revival

Thundermother

Ha, ha, ha, revival
Ha, ha, ha, revival

When it gets into your bone
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival
When it gets into your bone
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival

We're gonna take it back
Bring it back home
If rock and roll is in your heart
You're not alone

We're gonna make some noise
At the light
We're gonna raise our voice
Up to the sky

When it gets into your bone
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival
When it gets into your bones
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival

We got the drums
The bass and guitar
That's what we need
It'll make your ears bleed

We're gonna make some noise
At the light
We're gonna raise our voice
Up to the sky

When it gets into your bones
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival
When it gets into your bones
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival

Ha, ha, ha, revival
Ha, ha, ha, revival

When it gets into your bones
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival
When it gets into your bone
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival

When it gets into your bones
(Ha, ha, ha)
You're gonna lose another stone

Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival
When it gets into your bones
(Ha, ha, ha)
You're gonna lose another stone
Theirs is the light, ready to ride the revival
