

So Close

Thundermother

One more step I'm closer to the goal
An endless dream that I've been working for Determination in my heart
Been going so hard from the start

I feel I'm tripping, got too much to face
The door is closing, and that's the case
It's a chance to redefine
I'm gonna cross the finish line

'Cause I'm
I'm so close
Yet so far
I'm getting oh so close, but I'll start me up again
I'm so close
Yet so far
I'm getting oh so close, but I'll make it in the end

Running to the glory, take the fight
I don't care, I do it all again tonight
Determination in my heart
Will walk right back towards the start

I'm so close
Yet so far
I'm getting oh so close, but I'll start me up again
I'm so close
Yet so far
I'm getting oh so close getting so close getting so

Close to the finish line
Victory in my sight
Crowd getting louder
Standing there, by my side
Ain't giving up the fight

So close
Yet so far
I'm getting oh so close, but I'll start me up again
I'm so close
Yet so far
I'm getting oh so close, but I'll make it in the end

Getting oh so close, getting so close, getting so
Getting so close, getting close, getting close
Getting so close, getting close, getting so close

Yet so far
I'm getting oh so close, but I'll start me up again
I'm so close
