

Whatever

Thundermother

I'm whatever, don't want a fix
Everyone's around me tryna get a kick
And like always I'm far too smart
A white line makes you hungry that you need a restart

I'm a rock and roll baby, I don't need no cocaine
I'm a lifesaver when you turn up the gain

I don't need you, I won't feed you
You might feed people's senses insane
You are lethal, I turn you down
I'm a rock and roll whatever, whatever

I'm strong, never alone
I have my people close to the phone
So come on, listen to me
You better be without it or you'll never be free

I'm a rock and roll baby, I don't need no cocaine
I'm a lifesaver when you turn up the gain

I don't need you, I won't feed you
You might feed people but I know your lies
You are lethal, I turn you down
I'm a rock and roll whatever, I'm not your hound
I don't need you, I won't feed you
You might feed people's senses insane
You are lethal, I turn you down
I'm a rock and roll whatever, whatever

I don't need you, I won't feed you
You might feed people's senses insane
You are lethal, I turn you down
I'm a rock and roll whatever, I'm not your hound
I don't need you, I won't feed you
You might feed people's senses insane
You are lethal, I turn you down
I'm a rock and roll whatever, whatever

I don't need you, I won't feed you
You might feed people but I know your lies
You are lethal, I turn you down
I'm a rock and roll whatever, I'm not your hound
I don't need you, I won't feed you
You might feed people's senses insane
You are lethal, I turn you down
I'm a rock and roll whatever, whatever
