

Higher

Thunderstone

Ooh, my soul is on fire, yeah
Broken and burned, a life on the wire
Ooh, I feel myself falling
Carried away, where the darkness is calling

In the hours of night I keep calling your name
On my knees I cry out: come set me free

Come take me higher (higher)
Take me higher (higher)

Ooh, I'm yours to devour
Embrace my pain, and give me your power

On my knees I cry out: come set me free

Higher (higher)
Come take me higher (higher)

In the hours of night I keep calling your name
On my knees I cry out
Bleeding words from my mouth
On my knees I cry out: come set me free

Come take me higher (higher)
Higher
