

Through the Pain

Thunderstone

Close your eyes and let go of your past
Our flame's burning bright
Don't worry, I don't want to make it last
It's just for tonight

You run away from emptiness
And dream about being found
Now let's surrender to shamelessness
You and I will be unbound

We'll go, go with the flow
Losing control, it's time to let go

Give me your heart, give me your soul
You'll feel alive again, take my hand, I'll set you free
I will take you through the pain with me

Once you flew but longed to soar
Now you are tumbling down
Like a slave, you crawl back for more
Once a queen, you've lost your crown

We'll go, go with the flow
Losing control, it's time to let go

Give me your heart, give me your soul
You'll feel alive again, take my hand, I'll set you free
I will take you through the pain with me

I've got no heart, I've got no soul
I came here to play my role
I will never set you free
I will take you through the pain with me

Now take my hand and walk with me
You've got no choice, oh, can't you see
I feel your heart, while you pull me closer
Let me feel your burning heart
