

Endless...

Thurisaz

I was drowning in a dying moment
Drowning in her eyes
Feeling the wings of faith embracing me
So unreal but I could feel
The yearning to her divine beauty
A voice was sounding far away
Never dying
In the distance heard
The wind calls her name
My burning flame...

I was drowning in a dying moment
Drowning in her eyes
Feeling the wings of faith embracing me
So unreal but I could feel
The yearning to her divine beauty
A voice was sounding far away
Never dying
In the distance heard
The wind calls her name
My burning flame...
