

Fare Thee Well

Thurisaz

No more vengeance, no more pain
I know your soul bleeds again
I know I've lost the game this time
Because your fear is mine...

Somewhere between night and day
I witness your light fading away
That look in your eyes is trying to reach me
While the demons tear you away

Please... come back... again
I'm lost... without you

Please, come back into the light
We'll embrace your soul tonight
We can still make things right
All grief will fade away

No more vengeance, no more pain
All hate is quiet again
And as my soul yearns for peace
I know I've lost you again
