

Absence of time
Every week lasts for years
A seed planted nowhere
Collision, obsession, fear

The voice of no reason
Your aura surrounds it all
The fragments of future
My incomplete soul

Bear with me now
Ghost of the past
Let the yesteryear forever last

But the once level currents
Now flow in disharmony
A disease ridden cosmos
Of irreversibility

Change is due to be certain
Change is due to be real

Fusion becomes divided
The veil is set to reveal

Become what is essence
When your world will collapse
Turn your blood into ice (turn your blood into ice)
Make the towering anger snap
'Cause there is no reason
To resist the higher call
Give in to the fear
Take the step and just fall

Icy rivers streaming through
The veins of you
Holes with deeply hidden dreams
That never surface, so it seems

Poisoned is my heart
(Riddled with defeat)
Destined to lay here
I mourn for you somewhere in time

Scorched be this ground
(I am incomplete)
Clearing all thoughts
Now it's time to leave this behind

Poisoned is my heart
(Riddled with defeat)
Destined to lay here
I mourn for you somewhere in time

Scorched be this ground
(I am incomplete)
Clearing all thoughts

Now it's time to leave this behind

Someday I'll breach through this wall of silence again
Someday we'll breach through your wall of silence again
