One Final Step

Thurisaz

Faces fall off
All barriers down
It's time to confront her
She sees right through me
Deduction the lies
Expecting an answer

I can't find the words
A blank page in my mind
There's no easy way
I feel my heart burn
Cold sweat in my hands
I can't deny how it feels

For the first time
I'm letting you go

Scream in silence
Screaming violence
Worlds apart
Scream in silence
Screaming violence
Defining our hearts

Feeling the surface
No more disguise
I'm nearing the end
Taking the final step
To be cleansed
To be humanized

So, I'm letting myself down again
But the truth is I never cared

Scream in silence
Screaming violence
Worlds apart
Scream in silence
Screaming violence
Defining our hearts

Trust in night
Seek to hide
Trust in darkness
Curse the light
Trust in no one
I close my eyes
