

Honest James

Thurston Moore

Come back honest James
Come back to your town
Take your shadow's mistress
From our fertile ground.

Never one to cry out
But it's gone on too long
Every song is empty
Without your friendly tone.

Come back honest James
Your brother he is here
He rode into the darkness and he needs you to be near.

Why don't you just tell him
what's inside your heart
Let love take over you know the devil just ain't that smart.

And I'll always love him
And I'll always love him
And I'll always love him
And I'll always love him
