

January

Thurston Moore

He sees her sleeping on the grass

I think I heard a distant splash

In july she came to play

By January he learns to pray

Your shoes at the door

Waves come crashing to the floor

He sees your swimsuit on the grass

I thought I heard a distant laugh