

Silver - Blue

Thurston Moore

Blue meets silver and silver runs

Blue follows and then it's gone

it's gone, but not for long wood meets dirt and the dirt is fine

the dirt is always in your mind your mind, your mind is gone a pearl meets light and light gets lost but that's alright for the holy frost of the day

it's safe to say

every time we meet my friend all I know is it's the perfect end tonight is the perfect time every time we meet this way all I know is I must obey obey your fun and games
