

Crumbled

ThxSoMch

God damn (oh)
If only
When we lock eyes
Is that your way to taunt me
Said "I do what I want"
That's fine
Just lay it on me
Cut me now
Cuss me out
Burn me down

Last night
You looked so content
That's why
I crumbled again

Last night, last night, last night, last night
Yeah, you looked so good with him
Inside, inside, inside, inside
Motherfucker I crumbled again
Last night, last night, last night, last night
Yeah, you looked so good with him
Inside, inside, inside
Motherfucker I crumbled again

I crumbled again
I crumbled again

I can't resist
Wipe the dirt off of my lip
Girl cut me open will you
Baby I don't care
And if there's blood on the ceiling oh well
It wasn't for anybody out there

Your hair, my hair
Your hand, my hand
Oh well, oh well
Oh well, oh... well

Last night, last night, last night, last night
Yeah, you looked so good with him
Inside, inside, inside, inside
Motherfucker I crumbled again
Last night, last night, last night, last night
Yeah, you looked so good with him
Inside, inside, inside

Last night
You looked so content
That's why
One, two, three, four

Last night, last night, last night, last night
Yeah, you looked so good with him

Motherfucker I crumbled again
Last night, last night, last night, last night
Yeah, you looked so good with him
That's why, that's why, that's why
