

Hardly Surprising

Tide Lines

Raindrops, chimney tops, and steeples
Stretch as far as I can see
Where some solitary people
Walk these streets instead of me

So darling please come with me
And we'll escape the city evermore

'Cause I can dream of a place I've been
Where I know the sun will be rising
The sun will be rising for you and for me
'Cause right up here where the air is clear
Heaven knows - it's hardly surprising
It's hardly surprising we're feeling so free

Drifters, businessmen, and lovers
Stagger in and out of sight
As they try to rediscover
What feels wrong and what feels right

So darling please come with me
So you won't have to miss me anymore

'Cause I can dream of a place I've been
Where I know the sun will be rising
The sun will be rising for you and for me
'Cause right up here where the air is clear
Heaven knows - it's hardly surprising
It's hardly surprising we're feeling so free

So darling please come with me
So you can lie and kiss me
And you won't have to miss me anymore

'Cause I can dream of a place I've been
Where I know the sun will be rising
The sun will be rising for you and for me
'Cause right up here where the air is clear
Heaven knows - it's hardly surprising
It's hardly surprising we're feeling so free

'Cause I can dream of a place I've been
Where I know the sun will be rising
The sun will be rising for you and for me
'Cause right up here where the air is clear
Heaven knows - it's hardly surprising
It's hardly surprising we're feeling so free
