

Heart Don't Break Tonight

Tiffany Darwish

Lying in the dark tonight
Lying here alone
Trying to figure out tonight
Where it is I've gone
Lately I don't understand
Some feelings that I have
Even on the brightest days
I don't know why I'm sad

Sometimes when the night is still
I start to fall apart

Heart don't break tonight
Give me a little more time
Please don't let me down
'cause I can't stand the sound
Heart don't break tonight

Listening to the cars go by
On the boulevard
Wondering as I'm lying here
Why the night's so hard
I close my eyes and see you
The way you used to be
But right now all that I can do
Is just hold on to me

Sometimes when the night is still
I start to fall apart

Heart don't break tonight
Give me a little more time
Please don't let me down
'cause I can't stand the sound
Heart don't break tonight

I watch the lights dance on the wall
As another car goes by
I realize how quickly things can change

Sometimes when the night is still
I start to fall apart

Heart don't break tonight
Give me a little more time
Please don't let me down
'cause I can't stand the sound
Heart don't break tonight

Heart don't break tonight
Give me a little more time

Heart don't break tonight
Give me a little more time

Heart don't break tonight
