

Lost In Your Blue Eyes

Giardina Tiffany

Wasnt lookin for love at this time of my life
But their you was, sitting by my side
I can't resist walking away from something like this

Wasnt my intentions, searching for someone
Thought id keep my promise
But there the chance was

Theirs a reason, we're standing here tonight
Didn't plan for this to happen
Whats been down tonight
No where ride, no where to hide
The first time i saw you
Got lost, in you blue eyes

Lost in you blue eyes
Oh no

I looked back and laughed at the moments we've had Just you and me, staring at the sky
It's hard to belive that we're so far apart
Im missin you, as time goes by

Wasnt my intentions, searching for someone
Thought id keep my promise
But there the chance was

Theirs a reason, we're standing here tonight
Didn't plan for this to happen
Whats been down tonight
No where to ride, no where to hide
The first time i saw you
Got lost, in you blue

Never though that it would start to be Something so strong i can barely breathe
Didn't know you feel the same
Every time i look into your eyes
I never wanna hear you say good bye
Don't you know, don't you know

Theirs a reason, we're standing here tonight
Didn't plan for this to happen
Whats been down tonight
No where ride, no where to hide
The first time i saw you
Got lost, in you blue eyes

Theirs a reason, we're standing here tonight
Didn't plan for this to happen
Whats been down tonight
No where ride, no where to hide
The first time i saw you
Got lost, in you blue eyes
