

Cried For The Last Time

Tiffany

Tired of waking up
Always feeling nothing
Life is so damn tough
But it all means something
Talking to myself
Always leads to nothing
Tripping inside my head
Just to find that something

And I lost myself
For the love, I fell
Can't take no more
Cried for the last time
When you can't let go
I am so lost, sure
No hope to find
Cried for the last time
Tried for the last time

Making and breaking up
All of it exhausting
Only makes it rough
When you find that there's nothing
I'm tired of waking up
With you, I have just nothing
Tripping inside my head
That I'll leave someday

And I've lost myself
For the love, I fell
Can't take no more
Cried for the last time
When you can't let go
I am so lost, sure
No hope to find
Cried for the last time

Don't fall in love, fall in love
Fall in love
Don't fall in love, fall in love
Fall in love, oh-oh, oh
(Fall in love, fall in love)
(Fall in love) yeah-eh-eh-eh
Don't fall in love, fall in love
Fall in love

And I've lost myself
For the love, I fell
Can't take no more
Cried for the last time
I am so lost, sure
No hope to find
Tried for the last time
