

Drop That Bomb

Tiffany

Don't look now
But guess who's making crazy eyes at you
He wants to win your heart somehow
But don't think this boy knows what to do
He's so shy you might just wait forever
If you wait for him and love could pass you by
You may never have a chance like this again so

Drop that bomb
Tell him you're in love with him
Drop that bomb oh yeah
How else is he ever gonna know

Grab that boy and tell him
Now's your time
Ain't no sin to clue him in
The boy can't read your mind
Yah yah yah...

The best of love is hard to find
And it can slip like sand right through your hand
So when you find that gentle kind
You got to walk right up and take it while you can

Drop that bomb
Tell him you're in love with him
Drop that bomb oh yeah
How else is he ever gonna know

Grab that boy and tell him
Now's your time
Ain't no sin to clue him in
The boy wan't read your mind

A million nights from now
When he's looking deep in your eyes
You'd say remember how
We walked right into paradise

Oh, drop that bomb
Tell him you're in love with him
Drop that bomb oh yeah
How else is he ever gonna know
