

I Always Thought I'd See You Again

Tiffany

No, I'm not making that promise again
Nothing can change my mind
Nothing at all
'Cause love has a way of comin' undone
Till I'm all alone with my heart
And here I'll stay

And I always thought I'd see you again
Oh how it hurts, every time
You've crossed my heart since then
Gonna give it all it takes
To hold what might have been,
But I always thought I'd see you again

Now there's no reason to run for the phone
No need to hold my breath
Hopin' it's you
Each time I see someone we used to know
Or go some place we used to go
It's not the same

'Cause I always thought I'd see you again
'Oh how it hurts every time
You've crossed my heart since then
Gonna give up all it takes
To hold what might have been
'Cause I always thought I'd see you again

Love doesn't come when you need love
It's not always there when you fall
Try as you may, you got nothin' to say
Nothing at all

I always thought I'd see you again
Oh how it hurts every time
You've crossed my heart again
Gotta give it all it takes
To hold what might have been
'Cause I always thought I'd see you again
'Cause I always thought I'd see you again
Again
Again
