

Just Another Day

Tiffany

I was only chasing dreams
Swallowing words of make believe
Now life has come around
And turned my vision upside down

Shadows follow with no sound
They kick me and I hit the ground

Just another day
Fade to fade away
Chasing dreams away
Just another day
(Just another day)

It's just me, myself, and I
Thought I'd laugh but now I cry
Take me out of this place
So you can lie right to my face

Shadows speak without a sound
They turn on you and bring you down

Just another day
Fade to fade away
Chasing dreams away
Just another day

Just another day, memories that lose their faith
I'm tired of these vicious games
Let's stun the world and drift away

No more tears, no more pain
No more anger, no more shame

And through these eyes a break of day
Means nothing more to me, it's just another day

Just another day
Fade to fade away
Chasing dreams away
Fade to fade to fade away
Just another day
(Just another day)
