

Maybe

Tiffany

What should I do?
Oh, if I only knew
Whether to heed the warnings
Of a wiser trust in you

My love would break
With my love alone at stake
But would risking it all
Be a risk after all?

Maybe they're right
Maybe you're wrong for me
Maybe my heart's so blind in love this time
I just can't see
Maybe they're wrong
Maybe we're meant to be
And maybe just this once forever means eternity
Maybe it might?
But maybe they're right

Some of them say
My feelings are in the way
Clouding the painful outcome
They can see as plain as day

Here in the dark
Feeling the way with my heart
I wonder tonight
Will I see the light?

If love flows from your soul and your lips speak the truth
No doubt I'll echo out the same
And when those meaning will the wounded speak their minds
I won't hear my conscious say

Maybe they're right?
Maybe you're wrong for me
Maybe my heart's so blind in love this time
I just can't see
'Cause I'll know they're wrong
And I'll know we're meant to be
And if forever ends then we'll begin eternity
Just hold me tight
And tell me tonight

Well, maybe you're mine
Just baby we're right
