

Shadows

Tiffany

Fall in, I fall into your arms
Like a hothead, hothead in the night
Silence, just silence all around
Like a whisper, fall into the ground

All alone, baby, really, why you made me have to crawl?
And I'm hanging on, just waiting for your call
I am wrong, hoping that you'd catch me if I fall
'Cause I'm hanging on like shadows in the dawn

I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you
I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you

Fall in, I fall into your arms
Like a hothead, hothead in the night
Silence, just silence all around
Like a whisper, fall into the ground

All alone, baby, really, why you made me have to crawl?
And I'm hanging on, just waiting for your call
I am wrong, hoping that you'd catch me if I fall
'Cause I'm hanging on like shadows in the dawn

I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you
I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you

I'm lost in
The shadows
I'm lost in you
I'm lost in
The shadows
I'm lost in you

All alone, baby, really, why you made me have to crawl?
And I'm hanging on, just waiting for your call
I am wrong, hoping that you'd catch me if I fall
'Cause I'm hanging on like shadows in the dawn

I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you
I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you

I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you
I'm lost in you, lost in you
I'm lost in you
