

You're Everything

Tiffany

Here I am
Once again
Laying in your arms tonight
Here we are
Time keeps going on
Every breath I'm by your side

You're my everything
You're my everything in all
You're my everything in me
All my love

Here I am
Once again
Telling you my heart is true
Honestly
I can't take the strain
There's no words to pull you through

You're my everything
You're my everything in all
You're my everything in me
All my love

In a world full of sadness
Love is a foolish thing
You heal from the scars
To break you're heart over again

All I am
Is all we are
But I'm screaming
In the dark
Tell me why we're broken hearts
Burning hope right from the start

You're my everything
You're my everything in all
You're my everything in me
All my love

In a world full of sadness
Love is a foolish thing
You heal from the scars
To break you're heart over again

In a world full of sadness
Love is a foolish thing
You heal from the scars
To break you're heart over again

You're my everything
You're my everything in all
You're my everything in me
All my love

You're my everything

You're my everything in all
All my love

In a world full of sadness

In a world full of sadness
