

Death Card

Tiger Army

The 13th standard unfurled by dusk
White magnolia, ghostly bloom
The grim visage of a lone rider
He stops for no one

Dealt the death card don't you know
To gain a new life you must let go
Dealt the death card don't you know
Are you ready for ascendance?

All that which weighs upon us
Let it sink with the sun
Returned from whence it came
It's not the end, just the start of another game

Dealt the death card don't you know
To gain a new life you must let go
Dealt the death card don't you know
Are you ready for ascendance?

Dealt the death card don't you know
To gain a new life you must let go
Dealt the death card don't you know
Are you ready for ascendance?
