

Can't Wait Forever

Tigers Jaw

Sun cheating in through the window
And I am not awake to see you leave
Yours is the light I am drawn to

And you fell asleep in my car
And I was worried I was boring
But you had stayed up the night before
Dotting the I's of your stories

If there's faith I don't wanna know it
A tighter grip then you let go
If there's faith I don't wanna know it

Salt in your eyes on the nights with no sleep and the lights on
But I wouldn't take you for granted, you're all that I count on

And I'm wide awake, I can't wait forever
And I'm wide awake, I can't wait forever

And you were getting sick of the silence
And I was just the medicine you need
Chasing me over and over

And I was the voice inside your head
And I haven't seen you since you left
And I wasn't sure of what I said
But it wasn't the right thing

If there's faith I don't wanna know it
A tighter grip then you let go
If there's faith I don't wanna know it

Salt in your eyes on the nights with no sleep and the lights on
But I wouldn't take you for granted, you're all that I count on

And I'm wide awake, I can't wait forever
I'm wide awake, I can't wait forever

I'm wide awake, I can't wait forever
I'm wide awake, I can't wait forever
