

Hands Up

Tiggs Da Author

Aah, yeah aah
Woah, yeah, woah
One, two, three, come on

Come in too, yeah, the mandem vault
Walkin' in with no anything on
We ain't ballin' but still alright (Alright, alright)
'Cause ya baby mamma jumped on my bike (Haha)
I said "Ooh, don't have that"
If that was me I won't have that Ooh, he slapped that
Like a bass guitar, he just slapped that
Ooh, girl leave him
If he don't love you, just leave him
Ooh, my secret
If you was mine, girl I'd, keep ya

I know you might feel that love ain't real (Come on)
But for you, I will ride till the wheels
Fall off, baby, 'cause you're my baby, so hold on, baby
And I might tell you everything

Oh, I don't know, I think I slipped and hit my head
When I fell in love, yeah, that's what she said (Oh)
Through the door (Two times)
She find that chick inside the bed, oh no, no
And that's when she said
Hands up, get down (Hey)
Let the popo come in
Hands up, get down (Hey)
Let the popo come in (What you gon' do?)
(Oh) I don't know, I think I slipped and hit my head
When I fell in love, yeah, that's what she said

Babe, chill let me explain (Yeah)
I know right now, this doesn't look great (Uh-huh)
I know her from school, her best friend's Kate
Hahahaha, my mistake
Basically we was drinking something (Yeah)
Went to the club, started Milly rocking
I know we're in a bed, but it's really nothing
How can you think that she's like a sister to me?
It's too late for her to get home
Called her "Daddy" and he said, "Hell no"
I told her to stay, she was leaving early
And her jeans were hurting so she took them off
Ten minutes before you came the door
And I fully understand why it pissed you off
I know I should talk less and listen more
Come on, baby, I'll miss you more (Mwah)

Oh, I don't know, I think I slipped and hit my head
When I fell in love, yeah, that's what she said (Oh)
Through the door (Two times)
She find that chick inside the bed, oh no, no
And that's when she said
Hands up, get down (Hey)

Let the popo come in
Hands up, get down (Hey)

When I fell in love, yeah, that's what she said

Fall off, baby, 'cause you're my baby, so hold on, baby
And I might tell you everything (Come on)
I know you feel like I don't (Oh, oh, oh) give you affection
You be the one that I want, yeah
You know that I might tell you everything

Oh, I don't know, I think I slipped and hit my head
When I fell in love, yeah, that's what she said (Oh)
Through the door (Two times)
She find that chick inside the bed, oh no, no
