

Somebody Does

Tigirlily Gold

Maybe you're the odd one out in your home town
Or you feel like your luck with love has run out
Can't hold 'em down
Went swinging for the fences but you struck out
Or the ones who know you best are miles away now

I don't know who needs to hear this
But you should know you're somebody's reason
For getting out of bed in the morning
You're just what somebody's needin'
Even if you don't see it
You better believe you're somebody's more than enough
I don't know who needs to hear this
But I know somebody does

Wish you could change yourself like you change clothes
Never made first place and all you're ever told is you're so close
If only you could see yourself through their eyes
Oh, you know without a doubt you're doin' just fine

I don't know who needs to hear this
But you should know you're somebody's reason
For getting out of bed in the morning
You're just what somebody's needin'
Even if you don't see it
You better believe you're somebody's more than enough
I don't know who needs to hear this
But I know somebody does
I know somebody does

You're somebody's can't live without
Even if you don't feel it now

I don't know who needs to hear this
But you should know you're somebody's reason
For getting out of bed in the morning
You're just what somebody's needin'
Even if you don't see it
You better believe you're somebody's more than enough
I don't know who needs to hear this
But I know somebody does
I know somebody does

And you should know you're somebody's reason
I don't know who needs to hear this
But I know somebody does
