

Didn't I Get the Message

Tilian

Didn't I get the message?
Feel the rush all over my body
Didn't I learn my lesson?
The heat of the moment, screaming out

What about us?
Uh, ooh
What about us?
Oh yeah! Oh

Colors flow over my head
And we can map out all the mistakes
Or we can fold it up and lock it away
I don't want to know nothing
Don't want to know the places you've been
Just wanna hold you down in my arms again
Tell me where you're going
Not where you've been

Didn't I get the message
Never take what we have for granted
Didn't I learn my lesson
Won't give you a reason to scream it out

What about us?
Uh, ooh
What about us?
Oh yeah! Oh

Colors flow over my head
And we can map out all the mistakes
Or we can fold it up and lock it away
I don't want to know nothing
Don't want to know the places you've been
Just wanna hold you down in my arms again
Tell me where you're going
Not where you've been

We can start over again
I know that we can pretend
There's nothing to mend
We can suspend our common sense
And be fools again

Didn't I get the message, oh

Colors float over my head
And we can map out all the mistakes
Or we can fold it up and lock it away
I don't want to know nothing
Don't want to know the places you've been
Just wanna hold you down in my arms again
Tell me where you're going
Not where you've been
