

Gone

Tilian

Over-complicated story is gettin' old
Hold up, let's go back and bite your tongue
"Sorry's" getting boring
Ain't bought what you sold
And I won't ever come back
Just know that it's over, done

All of it was in the mix
You're the one who wanted me
To call it off and give you room to breathe
I'll admit I'm over it
On a roll of going with
The flow and never minding where it leads

Now that I'm gone
Things seem possible to make right
Now that I'm gone
I look so confident to you
Now that I'm gone
You've been wondering what it tastes like
Now that I'm gone, gone, gone, gone
And that's not fair

Told me you were jaded, passion running dry
Said that you felt it for far too long
My thoughts of you have faded, living for tonight
Never gonna come back
You know that it's over, done

All of it was in the mix
You're the one who wanted me
To call it off and give you room to breathe
I'll admit I'm over it
The flow and never minding where it leads

Now that I'm gone
Things seem possible to make right
Now that I'm gone
I look so confident to you
Now that I'm gone
You've been wondering what it tastes like
Now that I'm gone, gone, gone, gone
And that's not fair

Been getting intimate with, with other lovers
Don't waste my time
Now that you've tried some other bodies
But they don't they fit like mine
You don't get to call the shots no more
I've drawn the line so obvious

Now that I'm gone
Things seem possible to make right
Now that I'm gone
I look so confident to you
Now that I'm gone

You've been wondering what it tastes like
Now that I'm gone, gone, gone, gone...

Now that I'm gone
Now that I'm gone
Now that I'm gone
Now that I'm gone, gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone
And that's not fair
