Half

Tilian

I didn't know you wanted me to stay
You don't give it away
For you humility is shame
I found you on the brink of yesterday
You didn't wanna change
These broken-hearted memories

Got me high, got me low
Too far gone to take it slow
I'll let you turn around
But it's me in all directions
Hold my heart in your hands
Tear it into two
Call me half a man
'Cause I'm only whole when I'm with you

Been holding back for reasons you can't name
Brushing off the pain
Forever dancing in the rain
But I won't let you look the other way
Won't let this passion fade
I'd rather burn it up in flames

Because you saved me
Now let me save you
I'm not afraid to go all in

Got me high, got me low
Too far gone to take it slow
I'll let you turn around
But it's me in all directions
Hold my heart in your hands
Tear it into two
Call me half a man
'Cause I'm only whole when I'm with you

Because you saved me
Now let me save you

I didn't know you wanted me to stay
You didn't wanna change
These broken-hearted memories
