

INNER CHILD

Tilian

Move you, I don't wanna lose you
Got something to prove to everyone that shivers with me
Blushing, all the fools come rushing
Drama is a blessing
Close your eyes and pay attention now

No matter if you read the manuscript
You'll never make any sense of it, oh

Did you really wanna take my pain away? (Hey, away)
So you really wanna use my inner child?
Becoming reviled

Hollow, hard for you to swallow
Little pills you borrowed
Gagging on this feels familiar
New guy, who's the fucking new guy?
Can he have a good time?
Can he ride some joy back to your heart?

No matter if they leaked the manuscript
You'll never make any sense of it
Open up the ceiling, break me out of prison
I don't wanna sink in devotion
Beauty in division, freedom is a feeling, oh

(Inner child, can you hide your pride?)
(Inner child, can you hide your pride?)

Did you really wanna take my pain away? (Hey, away)
So you really wanna use my inner child?
Becoming reviled
