

Lips Tits Hips

Tilt

I got tired of the same old face, so I quit looking in the mirror, such = a sight, here's a brand new girl with eyes that are clearer, the older = model never saw things quite right. Lips tits hips, right down to the = fingertips, ten shades of beautiful for every disorder, lips tits hips, = right down to the fingertips, just a hint of my misfortune. My make-over = commence, candy coated lips can coach me right along, no mess, no fuss, = perfectly natch, I hope I learn what makes me look at things all wrong. = I'd say she was a man's girls, translucent with a bit of shine, I'd say = she's a bad idea, conditions as it deadens your mind.
