Old Crow

Tilt

Old crow of tobacco road
Wears a greasy smile all day long
??
If you got a malady
She'll sell you the remedy

Her domain transcended time
More suitable digs she'll never find
Stogies and linseed stain the walls
No one enters no one calls

Old crow not a good excuse
Around her neck she sports a noose
??

She can steal your memories
Replace them with a slow disease

Old crow of tobacco road
Wears a greasy smile all day long
??
Who she is nobody knows
Old crow of tobacco road
