

Calibrate

Tim Atlas

I feel your shame
When I'm out of patience
I calibrate
My expectations
You're tight in the face
It's a shit situation
Camouflage minds get lost

Piece of mind
I'm searching for some piece of mind
Before it falls apart
Just a piece of my mind
I'm searching for some piece of mind

Left all the smog
Just to feel further
From familiar songs
And notes that don't serve us
And I love the way we grow
So why's it feel so backwards
Searching for things that aren't lost

Piece of mind
I'm searching for some piece of mind
Before it falls apart
Just a piece of my mind
I'm searching for some piece of mind
