

I should've known
Then I left all of my clothes at your house
Would it be cool
If maybe I could pick them up right now?

Don't mind me
I'm passing through
Can't help but feel subdued
Cause maybe I misjudged you
I'm so confused
I don't know what to do

Oh I don't want to be blind
Smoke is burning my eye
Feeling the pressure holding my mind
Baby I wish you
Would notice
Say it's all just for fun
Like a bullet leaving a gun
Pulling the trigger for attention
I'm gonna feel so, whatever

I never knew
Conversations they could wear me down
I'm so exhausted, lost in the social cues
I'd rather stay in bed and turn the lights out

But don't mind me
I'm passing through
Can't help but feel subdued
Cause maybe I misjudged you
I'm so confused
I don't know what to do

Oh I don't want to be blind
Smoke is burning my eye
Feeling the pressure holding my mind
Baby I wish you
Would notice
Say it's all just for fun
Like a bullet leaving a gun
Pulling the trigger for attention
I'm gonna feel so, whatever

Oh I don't want to be blind
Smoke is burning my eye
Feeling the pressure holding my mind
Baby I wish you
Would notice
Say it's all just for fun
Like a bullet leaving a gun
Pulling the trigger for attention
