

Talk

Tim Atlas

Couldn't stop the noise
Even if I wanted to
At least I'm having fun with you

It's a never ending cycle
Out of sight out of mind
And the ignorance can take its time

Let's be honest
We pretend it's nothing
I know!

We're too busy to commit
Cause we're playing, we're playing, we're playing with love aga in
Hypocrites plead the fifth
Cause if we're not tired, then we won't talk (talk!)

Love has turned to hiding
Behind a screen that's telling me
To make a choice or disagree (disagree!)

The eloquent disasters
Leaves us with a green light
To pay the toll without the fine

Let's be honest
We pretend it's nothing
I know!

We're too busy to commit
Cause we're playing, we're playing, we're playing with love aga
in
Hypocrites plead the fifth
Cause if we're not tired, then we won't talk (talk!)

I know!
We're too busy to commit
Cause we're playing, we're playing, we're playing with love aga
in
Hypocrites plead the fifth
Cause if we're not tired, then we won't talk
